National Rail

Pay as you go with contactless area of validity map

Contactless cards or mobile devices can be used to pay as you go at an adult rate between any National Rail stations shown on the map. Travel must be completed wholly within the overall area of this map.

Find out more about pay as you go with contactless at nationalrail.co.uk/contactless

National Rail lines and stations
Not all trains stop at all stations, please check nationalrail.co.uk
The lines shown are part of National Rail and are operated by different train companies. See the London & the South East and London's Rail & Tube maps for more detail.

- National Rail stations that interchange with, or are nearby to:
- Docklands Light Railway (DLR)
- London Trams
- London Underground

London Underground and DLR
Pay as you go with contactless is valid on all London Underground and DLR routes and services. Only the central area routes and principal stations are shown on this map where they relate to cross-London journeys between principal National Rail stations. For full details of routes and stations, see the London's Rail & Tube map.

Luton DART
Contactless is valid on the Luton DART
